

Please DO NOT allow the Indiana Telephone Privacy law be weakened in any way.....Before the law we were getting anywhere from two unsolicited phone calls per day to five per week.....now we are getting less than three per week.....We enjoy the privilege of requesting only those we want to call us and not those we don't.